

Dr. Constance Bivens has been a teacher for many years; she began teaching classes at church in 1980 and has been teaching in her local church ever since. In addition to teaching at church she also taught third and 4th grade accelerated classes at Agape Christian School before moving on to becoming a Certified Master Life Coach teaching/facilitating Master Classes and workshops both online and in person. In addition, Constance has been awarded several prestigious awards such as the 2015 Women of Power, Woman of the Year Award, serving women as a mentor and role model, the 2011 Volunteer of the Year Award, serving Marines and their families living aboard Camp Pendleton, California, and the 2010 President's Volunteer Service Award from President Barak Obama.

Constance also serves alongside her husband as the Co-Founder of Saving Grace Ministries Church and Co-Pastor of Greater New Birth Family Outreach Ministries. Constance often shares that although her life is not perfect, she loves her life and teaches that regardless of a person's background or past mistakes, God has a place for them and can help them on their path to becoming their best self and creating their best life.

Constance and her husband, Kenneth, have been married for over forty years, and they are the parents of four grown children and grandparents of nine wonderful grandchildren. Kenneth and Constance Bivens make their home in Middle Georgia.
